

SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

NORTHERN VIRGINIA B'NAI B'RITH SPORTS SCHOLARSHIP

The Northern Virginia B'nai B'rith Lodges/Units announces the sponsorship of the thirteenth year of its sports scholarship program. All Northern Virginia High Schools (in the jurisdiction of Fairfax County, Arlington County, Prince William County, Stafford County, Loudoun County, Fairfax City, Alexandria City,) are entitled to submit candidates for the Northern Virginia B'nai B'rith Sports Scholarship for Jewish youth. This year as a minimum we intend to provide four $500 awards (two awarded to male athletes and two to female athletes). Two of these scholarships are in memory of Muriel and Harry Aft, parents of Rabbi Aft and one is in memory of Frieda Farkas Pollack, wife of William Pollack

Application forms will be reviewed by a committee for the determination of the final awards. The scholarship recipient shall be notified by May 21, 2007. The awards will be presented at a B'nai B'rith Brunch at Congregation Adat Reyim Synagogue on June 3, 2007

Scholarship applicants shall be judged on the following basis:

1. Athletic ability. The applicant must have been a bona fide player on a high school varsity team in a competitive sport.
2. Scholarship. Evidenced by grade point average and SAT score.
3. General community service activity.
4. Applicant must be of the Jewish Faith.
5. The recipient will be entering a college or university in the Fall 2007 term.
6. The scholarship award will be paid only to the school of the recipient's choice, on their behalf.
7. Final decisions regarding selection of recipients, procedures or rulings, shall rest with the Administrator of the Northern Virginia B'nai B'rith Sports Scholarship fund. Recipients of the scholarships must attend the award ceremonies to receive the awards.
8. Applicants must submit a high school transcript, official SAT scores and a wallet size photograph with their application.

Applications must be received by May 4, 2007. For further information, please call your High School Athletic Director or Rabbi Bruce Aft at Congregation Adat Reyim Office (703-866-5531).
